

Subjects & Predicates

Name: _____ Date: _____

Circle the subject and write out the complete predicate for each sentence.

(1) The soldier ran for cover when he heard the shot. _____

(2) Christian surprised everyone with his high chemistry test score.

(3) Korea exports many cars and trucks. _____

(4) Nobody believed that the rocket would work. _____

(5) The old computer booted up successfully on the first try. _____

(6) Jonathan caused a lot of trouble for his teammates during the big game.

(7) This blouse would look great with your shoes. _____

(8) William burst into the room. _____

(9) The swimming pool slowly filled with water. _____

(10) The Spanish quiz was harder than anyone expected it to be. _____

(11) Tiffany took some aspirin for her headache. _____

(12) The waitress should be here soon with the check. _____

(13) A loud crash could be heard coming from the kitchen. _____

Subjects & Predicates

ANSWER KEY

Circle the subject and write out the complete predicate for each sentence.

- (1) The soldier ran for cover when he heard the shot. ran for cover when he heard the shot
- (2) Christian surprised everyone with his high chemistry test score. surprised everyone with his high chemistry test score
- (3) Korea exports many cars and trucks. exports many cars and trucks
- (4) Nobody believed that the rocket would work. believed that the rocket would work
- (5) The old computer booted up successfully on the first try. booted up successfully on the first try
- (6) Jonathan caused a lot of trouble for his teammates during the big game. caused a lot of trouble for his teammates during the big game
- (7) This blouse would look great with your shoes. would look great with your shoes
- (8) William burst into the room. burst into the room
- (9) The swimming pool slowly filled with water. slowly filled with water
- (10) The Spanish quiz was harder than anyone expected it to be. was harder than anyone expected it to be
- (11) Tiffany took some aspirin for her headache. took some aspirin for her headache
- (12) The waitress should be here soon with the check. should be here soon with the check
- (13) A loud crash could be heard coming from the kitchen. could be heard coming from the kitchen